Catalog Description

An integrated interdisciplinary exploration of selected themes and representative materials in the African-American experience in North America, emphasizing continuity and change. (H) (WR) 4000.

Course Description

The experience of Africans in America and the Diaspora is broad and deep. The study of that experience will be examined, beginning in Africa, the birthplace of civilization and humanity and will extend to the history of blacks in America. It is impossible to capture each element of the journey, but our analysis will be an interdisciplinary approach to explore some of the political, cultural, economic, artistic and social themes that illustrate the influence of the construction of African American realities in the past and present. Class sessions will be composed of lectures, discussions, exercises, film screenings, media and textual analysis in an online format.

Course Objectives

Students will 1) obtain a general introduction to the origins of African American Studies 2) Identify theories and theorists of African American Studies 3) demonstrate an understanding of basic concepts common in discourse about African Americans that includes beliefs, cultures and conditions 4) be able to summarize a general historical overview of the history of African Americans 5) Explain some of the contemporary socio-cultural issues facing African Americans, 6) Develop critical analysis and research skills.

Requirements and Evaluation

Class Participation/Attendance _____ 5%

Weekly participation and completion of all assignments will be assessed to determine your participation/attendance grade. In the second week of each module, there will be a current events article that is pertinent to the African-American community posted to the message board. Discussion of these articles will also count towards participation.

Peer Review Article/Selected readings Quizzes _____ 5%

In modules 2 through 4 and 6 through 9 students will be expected to demonstrate mastery of the material in the assigned peer reviewed articles for the week via a multiple choice quiz. The allotted time for the quiz is 30 minutes and can be started at anytime from noon Monday until 11:00 PM Sunday Night. Failure to start the quiz by 10:30 PM Sunday Night will result in a zero with no chance for make-up.

Module Chapter Quizzes _____ 10%

In modules 2 through 4 and 6 through 9 students will be expected to demonstrate mastery of the material in the book chapters for the week via a multiple choice quiz. The allotted time for the quiz is 30 minutes and can be started at anytime from noon Monday until 11:00 PM Sunday Night. Failure to start the quiz by 10:30 PM Saturday Night will result in a zero with no chance for make-up.

Midterm Quiz

In module 5, students will be expected to demonstrate mastery of the material from modules 2 through 5 via a multiple choice quiz. The allotted time for the quiz is 1 hour and can be started at anytime from Noon Monday of that week until the due date.

Weekly Discussion Question responses totaling 7 pages (1500 Words)

In modules 2 through 9, students will be expected to develop a critical analysis to the weekly discussion board question. Each discussion question will be a topic developed from the selected chapters in the module. In answering the question in an initial response, students will identify theories and concepts that are in the selected chapters and explain why those theories and concepts answer the question. Each initial response to the question will be 1 page in length, double spaced, 12 point font and includes at least 2 CITATIONS FROM THE SELETED CHAPTERS!!! Initial responses will be graded on a 10 point scale. See the grading rubric for the discussion question at the end of the syllabus. After the initial response to the question is posted, students will respond to at least 2 different initial responses of their classmates in at least 3 or more sentences. Failure to post initial 1 page double spaced response by 11:59 PM Thursday will result in a half grade deduction for the assignment. Failure to post 2 rebuttal statements by 11:59 PM Friday will also result in a half grade deduction for the assignment. Failure complete both tasks in the allotted time frame will result in a ZERO for the assignment.

Current Events analysis 3 pages (750 Words)

10%

Research and Write a three page critical analysis on an article of choice on any topic concerning the African American experience. Your analysis of the article should entail a brief summary of the main research question, the data used, alternatives addressed, and main findings. The article must come from the JSTOR database or the selected websites at bottom of syllabus and must not have been published before January 2013. Check module 5 of the syllabus for when the paper is due. The paper should be 3 pages, typed, double-spaced, one-inch margins, 12-point Times New Roman font. There must be at least 6 citations from the selected article throughout the paper. Please read rubric and citation instructions on the assignment page to submit the final document before submission. Failure to follow the directions for any part of the assignment will result in deductions for at the instructor's discretion. Failure to turn in the assignment by the due date and time will result in a zero for the assignment. (See bottom of syllabus for instruction on how to access the JSTOR Database)

Research Paper 6-8 pages (1800 Words)

Research and write a 6 - 8-page paper on a specific topic from the book that concerns the African American experience. The paper must include at least 6 cited references including the "From Slavery to Freedom" textbook. Articles from JSTOR, News Organizations (i.e. New York Times, CNN) and Youtube videos may also be used for citation. Please read rubric and citation instructions on the assignment page to submit the final document before submission. Below are 6 topics that can be chosen:

1. Explain the paradox of Slavery and Freedom during the American Revolution (Chapter 5)
2. What are the similarities and differences between the Slave Codes in the Antebellum period, Black codes during the Reconstruction Period, and Jim Crow laws in the South after 1900 (Chapter 8, Chapter 11, Chapter 12)

3. How did Harriet Tubman, Mary McLeod Bethune, and Rosa Parks contribute to the various movements that they were apart of? Movements to consider in this analysis include the Abolitionist movement during the Antebellum period, The New Deal Era, and the Civil Rights movement. (Chapter 8, Chapter 17, Chapter 20)
4. Describe the Pan African movements of W.E.B. Dubois, Marcus Garvey, and Malcolm X. After describing all three movements, explain which one do you feel was the most effective in encouraging unity between black people globally. (Chapter 14, Chapter 15, Chapter 21)
5. Compare and Contrast the ideologies of Malcolm X and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr between 1955 and 1965. How did these ideologies between the two men help establish the foundation for the Civil Rights acts of 1964/1965 and the Black power movement? (Chapter 20, Chapter 21)
6. Is the election of Barack Obama the realization of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr's dream? Why or why not? (Chapter 20, Chapter 23)

Final Quiz

15%

The final quiz will be a multiple choice assessment that will test your knowledge of all material presented in the course.

Netiquette Guide for Online Courses

It is important to recognize that the online classroom is in fact a classroom, and certain behaviors are expected when you communicate with both your peers and your instructors. These guidelines for online behavior and interaction are known as netiquette.

Security

Remember that your password is the only thing protecting you from pranks or more serious harm.

- Don't share your password with anyone
- Change your password if you think someone else might know it

- Always logout when you are finished using the system

General Guidelines

When communicating online, you should always:

- Treat instructor with respect, even in email or in any other online communication
- Always use your professors' proper title: Dr. or Prof., or if you in doubt use Mr. or Ms.
- Unless specifically invited, don't refer to them by first name.
- Use clear and concise language
- Remember that all college level communication should have correct spelling and grammar
- Avoid slang terms such as "wassup?" and texting abbreviations such as "u" instead of "you"
- Use standard fonts such as Times New Roman and use a size 12 or 14 pt. font
- Avoid using the caps lock feature AS IT CAN BE INTERPRETTED AS YELLING
- Limit and possibly avoid the use of emoticons like :) or ☺
- Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm as tone is sometimes lost in an email or discussion post and your message might be taken seriously or offensive
- Be careful with personal information (both yours and other's)
- Do not send confidential patient information via e-mail

Email Netiquette

When you send an email to your instructor, teaching assistant, or classmates, you should:

- Use a descriptive subject line
- Be brief
- Use the e-learning software to send messages directly to the instructor
- Avoid attachments unless you are sure your recipients can open them
- Avoid HTML in favor of plain text
- Sign your message with your name and return e-mail address
- Think before you send the e-mail to more than one person. Does everyone really need to see your message?
- Be sure you REALLY want everyone to receive your response when you click, "reply all"
- Be sure that the message author intended for the information to be passed along before you click the "forward" button

Message Board Netiquette and Guidelines

When posting on the Discussion Board in your online class, you should:

- Make posts that are on topic and within the scope of the course material
- Take your posts seriously and review and edit your posts before sending
- Be as brief as possible while still making a thorough comment
- Always give proper credit when referencing or quoting another source
- Be sure to read all messages in a thread before replying
- Don't repeat someone else's post without adding something of your own to it
- Avoid short, generic replies such as, "I agree." You should include why you agree or add to the previous point
- Always be respectful of others' opinions even when they differ from your own

- When you disagree with someone, you should express your differing opinion in a respectful, non-critical way
- Do not make personal or insulting remarks
- Be open-minded

Course Do's and Don't's

- Do check the announcements page every Monday and Tuesday for assignment updates
- Do check syllabus page on CANVAS for due dates of assignments
- Do email if you have any questions or concerns regarding an assignment
- Do complete every assignment in full and on-time to increase your chance to receive maximum points on an assignment
- Don't assume if you are unsure about an assignment
- Don't request extra credit, especially if you missed or made an unsatisfactory grade on an assignment
