Please alert your TA or instructor if you have a problem accessing the electronic files

PURPOSE OF COURSE: This course examines the concept of race from the perspectives of biological and cultural anthropology. The first part of the course focuses on patterns of human biological variation and critically examines how these patterns compare to conventional ideas about race. The second part traces the origins of the race concept and explores the links between race and science. The third part examines the experience and consequences of racism in the United States and in other societies.

COURSE GOALS AND/OR OBJECTIVES: By the end of the course, you should be able to:

1. Describe global patterns of human biological variation and identify their causes.
2. Articulate why the concept of race does not adequately describe human biological variation.
3. Examine the cultural construction of race in science and in everyday life.
4. Compare the American racial worldview to ways of viewing human diversity in other societies.
5. Discuss racism at multiple levels of analysis and from a cross-cultural perspective.
6. Articulate your own position within a racialized society

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS: This course consists of 16 modules. Each module typically consists of a series of lectures, readings, an activity, a quiz, and a small-group discussion; however, this format does vary slightly. There are two exams (one mid-term and one- final) and a final digital storytelling project that requires students to plan and execute a reflection on their personal experience of race.

COURSE POLICIES:

POLICY ON LATE-WORK AND MAKEUP EXAMS

There will be no make-up exams or excused late-work except in the case of incapacitating illness or other university- approved absence (please see the University's policy on absences). In such cases, you must provide documentation from an appropriate authority to the instructor or TA as soon as possible. The Teaching Assistant (TA) may not give permission for make-up exams.

Late work will be accepted up to two calendar days beyond the due date but will automatically lose two letter-grades per day. In the case of excused absences, students will be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activity, provided appropriate documentation has been supplied to the instructor or TA as soon as possible.

SYLLABUS CHANGE POLICY

This syllabus is a guide for the course and is subject to change at the instructor's discretion. Students should refer to Canvas for the latest updates to course assignments and readings.

UF POLICIES & STUDENTS SUPPORT

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive, therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>. Unless the instructor specifically allows collaboration, all work should be individual. Evidence of collusion (working with someone not connected to the class or assignment), plagiarism (use of someone else's published or unpublished words or design without acknowledgment) or multiple submissions (submitting the same paper in different courses) will activate the Department's and the University's procedures for dealing with academic dishonesty.

SEXUAL HARRASSMENT: It is the policy of The University of Florida to provide an educational and working environment for its students, faculty, and staff that is free from sex discrimination and sexual harassment. In accordance with federal and state law, the University prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment. Sex discrimination and sexual harassment will not be tolerated, and individuals who engage in such conduct will be subject to disciplinary action. The University encourages students, faculty, staff, and visitors to promptly report sex discrimination and sexual harassment.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Module Work (60%)

There are sixteen modules in this course. Each module typically requires students to complete one activity, one small-group discussion, and one quiz. However, some modules include two or more activities and some lack a final quiz.

Module activities (20%) will vary and may include film reviews, mapping activities, primary source document analysis, storyboarding, and critical article reviews, among other activities.

Module discussions (20%) will reflect on the core issue presented in each module. Each discussion will include four unique prompts. Students are responsible for crafting a substantive post answering one of the four discussion questions and responding to two posts by peers. You are asked to utilize the discussion-board guide for help crafting a substantive post and appropriate responses.

Module quizzes (20%) will consist of 15 multiple choice and true-or-false questions. Quizzes are designed to test your mastery of content from a single module.

Midterm exam (10%)

There will be one midterm exam, consisting entirely of short essay questions. The exam will cover material from assigned readings, lectures, films, and class discussions or activities. The midterm is designed to test your knowledge of content from several modules and asks you to synthesize that material. The midterm is online and will be scheduled for October 8, 2:00pm–4:00pm EST ONLY. You will be able to access the questions for the midterm starting at 2:00pm EST and all answers must be submitted by 4:00pm EST. It is advised that you start the midterm as soon as it opens at 2:00pm EST.

Final exam (15%)

Like the midterm, the final exam will cover material from assigned readings, lectures, films, and class discussions or activities in a short-essay format. It will require you to integrate material from all sections of the course. The final exam is online and is scheduled for December 12, 6:00pm-8:00pm EST ONLY. You will be able to access the questions for the final exam starting at 6:00pm EST and all answers must be submitted by 8:00pm EST. ### Digital storytelling project (15%)

A digital story, according to the Center for Digital Storytelling, is “a short, first person video-narrative created by combining recorded voice, still and moving images, and music or other sounds.” Digital storytelling is a creative way for you to share your own experiences, perspectives, and emotions with others. The purpose of this project is for you to reflect critically on your experience of race and racism and to convey that experience to others. Students will build the skills necessary to complete their digital story throughout the course and in Module 15.

COURSE SCHEDULE:

FINAL EXAM: The final exam is scheduled for December 12, 6:00pm-8:00pm EST. Exams must be taken at the scheduled time.
