Requirements

Your grade in this class will be based on the following:

1) attendance and participation (20%). Attendance and participation in class discussions are considered mandatory. Attendance will be taken at each class, and active participation includes completing assigned readings before class, and demonstrating thoughtful engagement with course material through informed contributions to class discussion. Unannounced quizzes and short writing exercises based on the assigned readings will test your preparation for class and comprehension of class materials. Students are expected to bring either an electronic or hard copy of the day’s assigned readings (and their notes) to class with them for reference and discussion.

If you miss class for any reason, it is your responsibility to find out from your classmates what you have missed. Do NOT ask the professor for a synopsis of the class periods that you have missed or for materials handed out in previous classes!

2) media assignment ~ 3-pages (15%): Due in class Thursday, January 16th. More detailed instructions for this assignment will be provided on the Canvas course site and discussed in class.
3) two 5-page essay assignments worth 20% each (40%): these essays will respond to questions provided by your instructor, and they will be based on class readings, lectures, and discussions. Essay questions will be distributed a week before the assignment is due. The first essay is due in class on Thursday, February 14th; the second is due on Thursday, March 28th. Students MUST submit their essays both electronically on Canvas, and as hard copies at the class period on which they are due.

 NO LATE PAPERS WILL ACCEPTED WITHOUT THE PRIOR PERMISSION OF YOUR INSTRUCTOR. Electronic submissions alone will not be accepted without the prior approval of your professor. ***

4) take-home final essay exam of ~ 6-7 pages (25%): due, at the latest, on April 30th by 5 pm through electronic submission on Canvas.

There are no opportunities for extra credit in this class.

Readings

The following textbook is required and is available at local bookstores and online vendors.

Additional readings in the form of selected book chapters, academic and news articles will be posted on our Canvas course page and marked on the syllabus with an asterisk *.

Overall letter grades for the course will be assigned according to the following scale:

Classroom Policies and Ethics

Students are expected to arrive to class on time, be attentive and remain until class is over. Being consistently late is a disruption to the class and is not acceptable. Students who disrupt class will be asked to leave. Cell phones and laptops must be turned off at the beginning of the class.

All students should observe the University of Florida's standards of academic honesty. In the event that a student is found cheating or plagiarizing, s/he will automatically fail the course and will be reported to Student Judicial Affairs. Acts of plagiarism include:

- Turning in a paper that was written by someone else (i.e., papers written by another student, a research service, or downloaded off the Internet).
- Copying, verbatim, a paragraph or significant portion of text from the work of another author without properly acknowledging the source through a commonly accepted citation style and using quotation marks.
- Paraphrasing (i.e., restating in your own words) text written by another author without citing that author.
- Using a unique idea or concept, which you discovered in a specific reading, without citing that author.

Students with disabilities requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. Anyone with a disability should feel free to see the professor during office hours to make the necessary arrangements.
