This American History course covers the history of the United States from Reconstruction to the present time. It is important that you keep up on the assigned readings, as they supplement, not duplicate, classroom lectures.

This class will be on the Canvas Learning Management System. I have used Canvas before, but I am still learning the nuances of this system. Please bear with me as I try to figure it all out!

Your grade for this course will be determined in the following manner:

Final exam- 30%

Midterm exam- 25%

Paper- 20%

Quizzes- 15%

TA Participation- 10%

Grades will be assigned according to the following scale. There will be extra credit available- that assignment will be given after the midterm.

	A	93-100	A-	90-92
B+	87-89	B	83-86	B-	80-82
C+	77-79	C	73-76	C-	70-72
D+	68-69	D	66-67	D-	64-65
F	<64

The midterm exam will be given on Wednesday, February 27th during the class period, at the mid-point of the semester. The final is scheduled for on Thursday, May 2nd from 10:00–12:00 noon in our classroom. These exams will be composed of both essay questions and short-answer identifications. There will also be seven unannounced quizzes given throughout the semester. They will be short in duration (5-10 minutes) and consist of short answers, identifications, matching, and multiple-choice questions. Only six quizzes will be counted into the final grade averaging, as I will drop the lowest grade. These quizzes are given to ensure that you are keeping up on the reading and have a working knowledge of the subject matter. Your paper will be a short (4-6 pages) paper on the assigned readings. It will be due Wednesday, April 3rd. You will receive a handout on the paper during the early part of the semester. I encourage questions and class discussion. Please do not hesitate to ask both factual and interpretative questions. If you have specific questions on the subject matter or grading, please come see me during office hours. Though no specific percentage of your grade will be determined by class participation, I will consider it if you are on the borderline between two grades. There will be the possibility of extra credit- an assignment will be given after the midterm.

This syllabus is also available on-line at my UF website-
<http://www.clas.ufl.edu/users/nolls/Courses/courses.html>

Grades will be assigned according to the following scale. Be aware of minus grades!

A	93-100		A-	90-92
B+	87-89	B	83-86	B-	80-82
C+	77-79	C	73-76	C-	70-72
D+	68-69	D	66-67	D-	64-65

There is an emphasis on reading and writing in this class. Therefore, be prepared to engage the books critically and spend time crafting well-thought out papers and responses.

I encourage questions and class discussion. Please do not hesitate to ask both factual and interpretative questions. If you have specific questions on the subject matter or grading, please come see me during office hours. I also encourage you to contact me by e-mail as I respond promptly to questions, concerns, or comments.

Syllabus & Course Instructions

Due to the increasingly technological nature of our society, I find it necessary to address the issues of cell phones in class. Please turn off all of these electronic devices before coming to class, as they are disruptive to the learning environment and distracting to other students. Thank You.

I also need to address tardiness to class in a more formalized manner. Lateness is also disruptive and distracting to a positive learning experience. Constant carping on this issue both demeans the class and takes away from learning time. Therefore, I urge you, as responsible adults, to arrive to class on time ready to learn. To encourage on-time behavior, one point will be deducted from each quiz that you are tardy. This policy will start with Quiz 2. Again, your cooperation is appreciated. Thank You.

Class attendance is an important component of your learning experience, especially in a introductory course. Since students are adults, a mandatory attendance policy will not be in effect for this course. Make-ups for quizzes will not be available, except for excused medical absences (signed by authorized medical personnel) or attendance at official university functions.

Each week (there will be some weeks with no reading assignments), you will have a reading assignment for your Friday TA section. As part of your participation grade, you will turn in a short writing paper (1 page single space max!) each week based on the reading assignments. If you will not be in section, you must e-mail that short paper to your TA. This insures that you are doing the reading and it also provides ways for students who are not comfortable speaking in class to participate and get a high mark on their participation grade.

Students requesting classroom accommodations for disability issues must first register with the Office of the Dean of Students. This office will provide documentation to the student who then must provide this documentation to me. I am more than willing to do whatever is necessary to ensure an optimum learning environment for all students.

Be aware of the University's policy on plagiarism. It can be found at <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/judicial/academic.php>. The Internet has made this situation more problematic but understand that plagiarists will be caught. Any questions about what constitutes plagiarism, please do not hesitate to ask. All plagiarism offenses will be reported on a Faculty Adjudication Form and forwarded to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs.

Each of the 7 quizzes will consist of 5 multiple choice questions from lecture and the readings. Quizzes will be given mostly in TA sections, but also in the larger lecture class. I will drop the lowest quiz grade (if you miss a quiz, that will be your drop). Six quizzes will be counted toward your quiz grades- each has 5 questions, so that is a possible total of 30. Your final quiz grade will be your total quiz points divided by 2 (hence, the 15% of your total grade).

There is a 4-6 page paper on the monograph reading for this class- Slavery by Another Name or 2 articles from Women, Families, and Communities. It will be due on the Wednesday of the 12th week of classes (Wednesday, April 3rd). You will be getting a sheet on this assignment within the first week of class. If you have questions or problems with this assignment, please come & see me early.
