OUR CLASS WILL MEET ON TUESDAYS AND THURSDAYS FROM 3:00 TO 4:25 PM IN HOLLAND 359.

My office is Holland Hall Room 307, my email address is wolfm@law.ufl.edu, and my phone number is 352-273-0934. I am typically in my office Monday through Friday. If my door is open, you are welcome, as I do not restrict my contact with students to a few hours per week. If you would like to make sure that I am available in my office or to set up an appointment, please send me an email message.

THERE ARE FOUR REQUIRED TEXTS FOR THIS CLASS:

SEAN WILENTZ, NO PROPERTY IN MAN: SLAVERY AND ANTISLAVERY AT THE NATION'S FOUNDING (2018)

WILLIAM E. NELSON, MARBURY V. MADISON: THE ORIGINS AND LEGACY OF JUDICIAL REVIEW (2D ED. 2018)

ADDITIONAL ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE POSTED ON THE CANVAS SITE FOR THIS COURSE.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Analyzes the development of constitutionalism from English colonial origins to the end of Reconstruction, emphasizing the inherent tension between concepts of power and liberty.

This course will explore the origins and early interpretations of the U.S. Constitution. Readings will focus on English constitutionalism, early state constitutions, the Articles of Confederation, the framing and ratification processes, and Supreme Court opinions from the beginning of the Court to Reconstruction.
COURSE POLICIES:

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Attendance is expected and absences will have an impact on your participation grade (see discussion below). If you know you will miss class the day an assignment is due, you should consult the instructor beforehand. Unexpected illnesses and emergencies do happen. If you become ill or are otherwise unable to make class the day an assignment is due, please email the instructor as soon as possible (ideally before class).

INTERNET USE IN THE CLASSROOM: I expect that during each class all students will be prepared to conduct research on the internet using a laptop, tablet, or other means. Of course, students are not to use these devices (including smart phones) for any non-pedagogical purposes.

ACADEMIC HONESTY: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

The Honor Code (https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

GRADING AND ASSIGNMENTS:

Reading assignments listed on the course schedule should be completed for the date listed on the schedule (subject to revision), so that you are prepared to discuss the material in class.

There will be two essay tests and two 3,000-word papers. There is no final examination. Papers turned in after class on the day due will be marked down half a grade (for example, from an A to an A-). Papers turned in a day late will be marked down a full grade (for example, from an A to a B). Papers turned in two days late will be marked down two full grades (from an A to a C). Papers turned in five days late will be given an F.
1. Class participation (based on a mix of attendance and discussion): 20% of grade

2. Two tests: 30% of grade (15% each)

3. Two papers: 50% of grade (25% each)

I expect that students will have done the assigned readings for each class. I will rely on student participation to facilitate the learning of challenging concepts. Students who participate at a consistently high level may be rewarded by a one-half grade bump (e.g., from B+ to A-). I reserve the right to lower the grades by a one-half grade bump of students who disrupt the learning environment.

ACCOMMODATIONS:

Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Disability Resource Center (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/). Once registered, students will receive an accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

CLASS READINGS:

You will find below the book chapters, cases, and other materials that I anticipate we will cover during the semester. I will distribute electronically a short excerpt from each case listed. Before reading that excerpt, students should review the summary for the case on the Oyez site (www.oyez.org). For most classes, I will also distribute one or more historical documents to accompany the assignment. Individual undergraduate students will be given (via email) a question that is drawn from the assigned readings for each class and will share the answer with the class. This will form part of the student's class participation grade. In the event we are moving more slowly than anticipated, I will not speed up to cover all of these readings. Instead, I will make cuts in the assigned readings.
