This internship will focus on social movements, activism, and organizing in Florida. Students can choose to focus on the US Civil Rights Movement, farmworker organizing, the Dream Defenders and/or the Black Lives Matter movement, and immigrant rights organizing. This is a methods-driven internship that draws on scholarship from Ethnic Studies, oral history, and decolonizing ethnography.

Interns develop skills in:

- Interviewing and fieldwork methods
- Transcription and interview processing
- Podcasting and audio editing
- Social media and event promotion
- Short documentaries and video editing
- Public and community engagement
