The Samuel Proctor Oral History Program

FALL 2019 VETERANS HISTORY PROJECT

Applications are due by April 22, 2019

SPOHP is offering a fall internship through the History department (HIS 4944) that will focus on US military veterans and homefront experiences in different eras, from World War II to currently-enlisted personnel. Students enrolled in this internship will apply Ethnic Studies and oral history approaches to veterans history and conduct primary research in the form of publicly-archived interviews.

INTERNS DEVELOP SKILLS IN:
- Interviewing and fieldwork methods
- Transcription and interview processing
- Podcasting and audio editing
- Social media and event promotion
- Short documentaries and video editing
- Public and community engagement

For more information check out tinyurl.com/jckd79b, contact Associate Program Director Ryan Morini at ryan.s.morini@gmail.com, or visit us at the SPOHP offices in Pugh Hall 247