COURSE OBJECTIVES

This is the SECOND course of a three part beginning series at the University of Florida. Students will master the vocabulary, morphology, and syntax in chapters 15-27 of Wheelock's Latin, and practice in the fluid translation of Latin to English and English to Latin. Students will leave this class prepared for Latin 3.

ACTIVITIES

Written exercises both in class and assigned as homework will reinforce the inflectional patterns of Latin and aid in memorization. Students will have regular practice reading Latin, translating into English, and composing Latin sentences. Oral drill and recitation will establish proper pronunciation. Quizzes and exams will ensure that students memorize vocabulary, declensions, and conjugations, and that they understand how to put these elements together in smooth translation.

EMAIL/SAKAI

On sakai you will see each quiz and date of attendance labeled. If you miss a quiz you will be expected to make it up, no exceptions. If you miss class, the absence—if unexcused—will count against your grade. I will upload review sheets et al. to sakai, so be sure to check it regularly. I will also email you regularly with assignments, points of interest, or whatever else pertains to class and your grades. Please respond within a reasonable time.

CLASSROOM POLICIES

1. Your perfect attendance is expected. The university recognizes the right of the individual professor to make attendance mandatory. After due warning, professors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences. If you must miss class you must email/contact me in advance for your absence to be considered excused.

2. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. For everyone's convenience please have the notification delivered to Instructor one week prior to need.
3. The use of cellular devices during lecture is strictly prohibited. In other words, TURN YOUR PHONE OFF AND PAY ATTENTION.
4. Academic Honesty is expected at all times. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity. On all work submitted for credit by students at the university, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."
6. Students who face difficulties completing the course or who are in need of counseling or urgent help may call the on-campus counseling center: 352-392-1575, or the student mental health center: 352-392-1171. Please do not wait until the end of the semester to seek help.
7. All class concerns should first be directed to Instructor, and if further discussion is necessary you may direct your concerns to the TA coordinator at biagio.santorelli@gmail.com.
